OCEAN CABLES, NEW AND OLD. ESTIMATES FOR LAYING TWO NEW CABLES-HO

Estimates for laying two new Atlantic cables, to be operated when laid in connection with the land lines of the American Union Telegraph Company, have been received from Siemens & Co., the English cable contractors. They agree to complete the two cables for something less than £1,500,000. Their offer has not yet been accepted because the promoters of the new company are awaiting the receipt of estimates from Matthew Gray, of the Silverton Works. The announcement that a contract has been made for the new cables is premature. Siemens & Co. haid the new French cable within seven months from the date of the formation of the company, and it is expected that they would be able to complete the proposed cables in a still shorter period. All the ocean cables laid by this firm are now working excepting the new French cable, which was broken recently. This will be repaired probably to-day, the ends having been receivered. THE OLD ONES HAVE LASTED.

cable, which was broken recently. This will be repaired brobably to-day, the ends having been recovered.

The proposal to lay two new ocean cables has attracted attention to the companies which operate them. The Anglo-American Company has three cables in operation, in addition to the Erlanger or Anglo-French cable which it manages. The capital of the company is £7,000,000, divided into three classes of stock: ordinary, £2,277,460; preferred, catitled to 6 per cent dividends, £2,361,270, and deferred, £2,361,270. According to the latest report of the company's business dividends were paid on this stock of 1 per cent on ordinary and 2 per cent on preferred. Of the cables had by the company, that laid in 1865 was broken March 11, 1873, and finally abandoned February 1, 1878; that laid in 1866 was broken January 13, '877, and abandoned July 27, 1878. The latter cable, except the shore ends, was renewed last Summer at a cost of £222,300; it is now called the cable of 1880. The cable had in 1873 was broken April 2, 1879, and was repaired in the same month; it is now in operation. No break has yet occurred in the cable laid in 1874. Of the three cables now working, which were had by the company, one has been down over six years and another over seven years. The Erlanger cable, which was laid in 1869, was broken in the following May and several times since the same accident has occurred. It was last repaired in Angast, 1879, having been broken February 22 in that year, but if was again broken february 22 in that year, but if was again broken february 22 in that year, but if was again broken february 22 in that year, but if was again broken february 22 in that year, but if was again broken february 22 in that year, but if was again broken february 22 in that year, but if was again broken february 22 in that year, but if was again broken february 22 in that year, but if was again broken february 22 in that year, but if was again broken february 22 in that year, but if was again broken february 22 in that year, but if was

The Direct United States Company has an anihorized capital of £1,300,000, of which £1 213,300 has been issued. It has issued also debeature bonds to the amount of £06,725 drawing 6 per cent interest. Its cable was and in 1874, and has been broken twice; the first time, January 4, 1879, on the occan tide near Torbay, and in February, 1879, in the Rye Beach and Torbay section. Both breaks were repaired, and the cable is said to be now in good condition.

The length of different cables in nautical miles is nearly as follows: Anglo-American, Ireland to Newfoundland 1850 miles, and from Newfoundland to Sydney over 300 miles, a total distance of about 2,150 for each of its three cables; the Anglo-French cable from Brest to Duxbury, by way of St. Pierre, about 3,329 miles; the Direct Unit of States cable from Brest of Dray and from Iorbay to Rye Beach, 2,369 miles; and the new French cable from Brest to Louisburg, 2,430 miles; from St. Pierre to Cape Cool, 880 miles, and from Brest to Penzince, 151 miles; a total length of about 3,461 miles. The cables which it is now proposed to lay will be each about 2,400 miles long. They will connect with the land lines at Cape Breton.

BATTLING WITH WINDS AND WAVES.

Several more of the European steamships which have been delayed by severe weather arrived in port yesterday. The steamship Volmer, which sailed from Havre November 11, had not been sighted up to sandown last night. The agents of the vessel, however, do not feel any apprehensions concerning her safety. The Victoria, of the Anchor Line, sailed from London November 14, and had she not met with adverse weather would no doubt have arrived in twelve days. The fact that she is eleven days behind time does not give the agents reason to fear that she is lost.

The Pereire had an exceedingly stormy voyage. She was thrown about almost like a busy during the heavy weather, and the tremendous seas broke with great force over her decks. The ruddet chains were broken and the auxiliary steering apparatus had to be used. Thanksgiving Day was the worst of the voyage. Claude Mixsiler became crazed with fear, and in a moment of excitement said that he would rather take his chances than to wait for the vessel to founder, and sprang overboard. A life booy was thrown to him; he clung to it for a tew moments and was then lost to sight.

John Knott pleaded guilty in the Court of General Sessions, yesterday, to an indictment charging him with robbery in the first degree. On the night of November 3 last, in company with four other men who escaped arrest, he attacked and robbed Thomas S. Hayes in a restaurant at No 697 Thirdaye. In passing sentence, Recorder Smyth, after relating the circumstances of the robbery, said:

"You can't take up a newspaper in the morning without reading of attacks on reputable citizens by just such scoundrels as you. I am determined that people like you who contemplate crime shall have an example before them. The sentence of the Court is that you be confined in State Prison at hard labor for fifteen years."

When the Recorder had finished, a respectably dressed woman, the mother of the prisoner, was taken crying and screaming from the court-room. Knott is twenty-four years old, and has already served a term in State Prison for burglary.

When the servant returned the theft was discovered. Tramps had been seen

PLACE-HOW MR. WILKINS WAS ATTACKED. PLACE—HOW MR. WILKINS WAS ATTACKED.

The highway robberv in Clinton-place early Sunday evening caused much excitement and discussion in the neighborhood yesterday. As already stated in The Tribune. Edward Wilkins, of No. 47 Sixth-ave., was found in an alley at No. 128 Clinton-place by Officer Mulcahy, of the Thirteenth Police Precinct. The officer was passing the alley at about 8 o'clock when he was attracted by a white object upon the ground, and upon examination he found a man lying there unconscious. He was without a coat, his wasscoat had been pattailly removed and his shirt was exposed. The man was taken to the Mercer Street Station and thence to the New-York Hospital, where he remained unconscious until several hours after midnight.

mained unconscious until several hours after midnight.

The officer, suspecting from the man's position and condition that he had been robbed, arrested a young man who was found at the entrance of the alley, and several hours later he arrested another young man, who was known to be one of a gang of ruffians that frequents the neighborhood. The men were John Grimes, age twenty-lour, of No. 153 Waverly-place, and Francis Kerns, age twenty-two, of No. 144 Greenwich-st. Still later at might Officer Mulcathy arrested Martin Smith, age twenty-six, of No. 237 West Thirteenth-st., James Ackernan, age twenty-five, of No. 24 Sixth-ave, and Wilham Smith, age twenty-two, of No. 54 West Tenth-st. The presoners are all members of the same gang. Yesterday morning Andrew Smith, of No. 237 West Thirteenth-st., was arrested on suspicion of having taken part in the assault. The prisoners were arranged before Justice Wandell, at the Jefferson Market Police Court, vesterday morning, and were remanded noted to-day. Detective Crowley, of the Fitteenth Precinct, was detailed to scarch for evolutione against the prisoners, and it was said yesterday that he had been successful. A package of papers belonging to Mr. Wilkins was found in front of No. 76 Chinton-place, indicating that the robbers went toward Broadway.

After recovering consciousness at the hospital, Mr. Wilkins showed great anxiety to be at his post at the usual time, and he left the hospital at 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning. When he got home, however, he was attacked with such violent names in the head and stonach that he was compelied to go to bed. The story he told of the robbery was thus? HANGED JANUARY 28, 1881.

Augustus D. Leighton, the mulatto who was convicted last week of the premeditated murder of Mary Dean, formerly his mistress, was taken into the Court of Over and Terminer, before Justice Brady, yesterday, to receive his sentence. He was cool as he has been since his arrest, but his face is beginning to show the signs of despair. The scores of persons who had been waiting outside the courthouse for his arrival pressed after him into the Court-room. When the prisoner stood facing the Judge and was asked what he had to say why judgment should not be passed, his voice trembled as he answered: "Nothing, except that I am not intentionally guilty of the death of that unfortunate woman." Justice Brady, before passing sentence, spoke in strong terms of the dangerons habit of carrying concented weapons. "The Court has no sympathy," he said, "for those who indulge in this tence, spoke in strong terms of the dangerous habit of carrying concenied weapons, "The Court has no sympathy," he said, "for those who indulge in this habit, and must regard the possession of a weapon, unless clearly and satisfactorily explained, as evidence of an intention to do wrong. Among your people the razor seems to be a favorite weapon. That it is a dangerous one cannot be doubted, and the practice of carrying it as such should result in severe punishment, whether used or not. It is crimical and fraught with evil," Then, after warning the prisoner to expect nothing from Excentive elemency and to prepare for death, the Judge sentenced him to be hanged January 28, 1881. Leighton listened composedly to the reading of the death warrant, and then, very pale, walked back with the Sherifi to the Tombs.

RESULTS OF THE OPERA SEASON.

The Queen arrived from Liverpool six days overdue. Her voyage was marked by westerly gales and terrific seas.

The P. Caland, from Rotterdam, ten days behind time, encountered storm after storm, and the officers of the vessel declare that it was one of the worst voyages ever experienced on the Atlantic. In the English Channel the storm was so severe that the vessel sustained some detangement to her machinery. She then put into Torbay for a few hours to make repairs. From November 17 until after crossing the Banks of Newfoundland the gales were incessant and the seas completely submerged the vessel at times. On November 25 the vessel was hove to and drifted nineteen miles astern in twenty-four hours. During the three succeeding days she did not average a headway of fifty miles a day. The passengers became greatly alarmed and lost all hope of ever reaching port.

The steamship Atlas, from Kingston, Jamaica, on Saturday, off Savannah, passed the wreck of an unknown schooner. The vessel was bottom up and her spars were floating about.
